

Rest of the bird explanation:

(1) In this position, the liquid is no longer in the way of the higher-pressure gas at the bottom. (2) So the gas diffuses into the bird and equalizes pressure. (3) Gravity is now stronger than the pressure of the gas in the column, and the liquid from the head flows back into the lower section.

The cycle will then repeat itself.